FOREWORD

This is another contribution to our series of research papers which brings work at the Health and Social Policy Research Centre (HSPRC) to a wider audience. HSPRC aims to:

- foster and sustain quality research in health and social policy
- contribute to knowledge, theoretical development and debate
- inform policy making, teaching and practice

Its main areas of expertise are:

- community and service user empowerment
- inter-agency working and partnership
- health and social care
- health promotion
- policing and criminal justice
- transport and green social policy
- voluntary sector
- neighbourhood renewal
- needs analysis and evaluation

HSPRC publishes a regular newsletter and an Annual Report, as well as a separate series of occasional papers. Recent reports include:

Second Best Value: the Central Stepney SRB – how non-joined-up Government policies undermine cost-effectiveness in regeneration (Ambrose, P. May 2002)

An Evaluation of the Sussex Oakleaf Substance Misuse Project (Szanto, C. July 2002)

The Financial Situation of Students at the University of Brighton: the eleventh report, 2001/2 (Banks, L. and Winn, S. October 2002)
